FOLEY FIELD RENOVATION PROJECT UPDATE

The current $45 million renovation of Foley Field will continue to elevate both the player and fan experience at UGA's baseball facility.

The entire project is slated to be completed by the start of the 2025 season. Improvements will be made along the left field line and will include a new pitching lab and hitting tunnels, coaches' office and other amenities.

For the fans, there will be multiple new premium spaces as well as enhanced fan experiences throughout the venue. For 2024, the Bulldogs already have a new locker room and team meeting room plus new stadium LED lights.

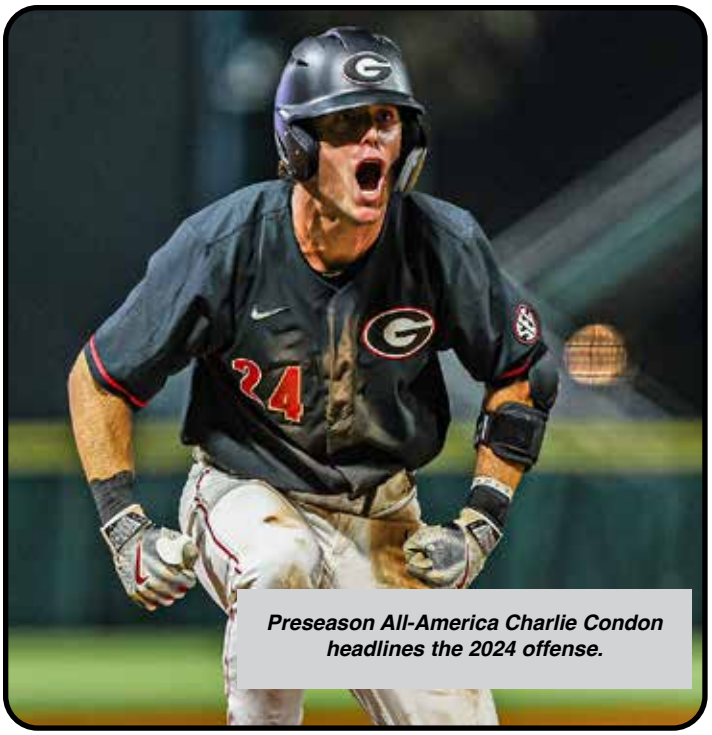
Bulldogs Sport New Look In 2024



Preseason All-America Charlie Condon headlines the 2024 offense.

The Bulldogs will have new faces around the diamond and in the dugout in 2024 as the Wes Johnson era begins at the University of Georgia and Foley Field. The NCAA Transfer Portal allows teams to overhaul rosters annually, and coupled with 10 Bulldog freshmen, Georgia's latest squad will feature 28 newcomers.

The Lineup and Defense

In 2023, Georgia hit .283 with a .505 slugging percentage, a .380 on base percentage and blasted 101 home runs in 56 games. Georgia's lineup boasts one of the nation's top returning players in consensus All-American Charlie Condon. He is projected to be a premium pick in the 2024 Major League Baseball Draft.

After spirited competition in the fall, the Opening Day lineup could feature the following with more battles on tap in the early part of the campaign.

"We know it's about run creation, and we have the ability for power and speed in the lineup," said Ike Cousins head coach Wes Johnson.

Potential Starters: Bulldog, Cl., (2023 Avg.-HR-RBI)

C: Fernando Gonzalez, Sr., (.232-6-18)
1B/OF: Charlie Condon, RSo., (.386-25-67)
2B: Paul Toetz, Gr., (.335-10-53 @Purdue)
3B: Slate Alford, Jr., (.248-9-36 @ Miss. State)
SS: Kolby Branch, So., (.325-6-41 @ Baylor)
CF: Dillon Carter, Gr., (.267-6-23 @ Texas Tech)
OF: Clayton Chadwick, Gr., (.294-10-49 @ Sam Houston St.)
OF: Dylan Goldstein, Gr., (.297-13-62 @ Fla. Atlantic)
DH/OF/C/1B: Corey Collins, Sr., (.267-6-20)

Additionally, Bulldogs to watch who can contribute at multiple positions include veterans Josh Stinson, Sebastian Murillo, Henry Hunter, Logan Jordan plus freshmen Trey King and Tre Phelps.

Georgia posted a school record .981 fielding percentage in 2023 and once again has the versatility to boast one of the league's top defenses.

"We will have an elite defense, and we have a lot of lineup flexibility," said Johnson. "The challenge will be matching up the right guys versus certain pitchers."

Pitching

The Bulldogs have a bevy of arms that will compete for innings and solidfy roles on the staff. Georgia brought in an array of experienced pitchers to round out the returning members of the 2023 staff.

The Bulldogs return right-handers Leighton Finley, Blake Gillespie, Matthew Hoskins and Kolten Smith plus left-handers Charlie Goldstein, Jarvis Evans who have experience as starters. Chandler Marsh could move from the bullpen to a starting role in 2024. Finley earned All-Star honors this past summer in the Cape Cod League.

The newcomers that should have an immediate impact include Brian Zeldin (Penn), Brandt Pancer (Stanford), Josh Roberge (Southern New Hampshire), Daniel Padysak (Charleston Southern), Zach Harris (Georgia Southern) and Christian Mracna (George Mason). A couple of freshman pitchers aiming to make their mark this season are right-handers Ethan Sutton and James Hays.

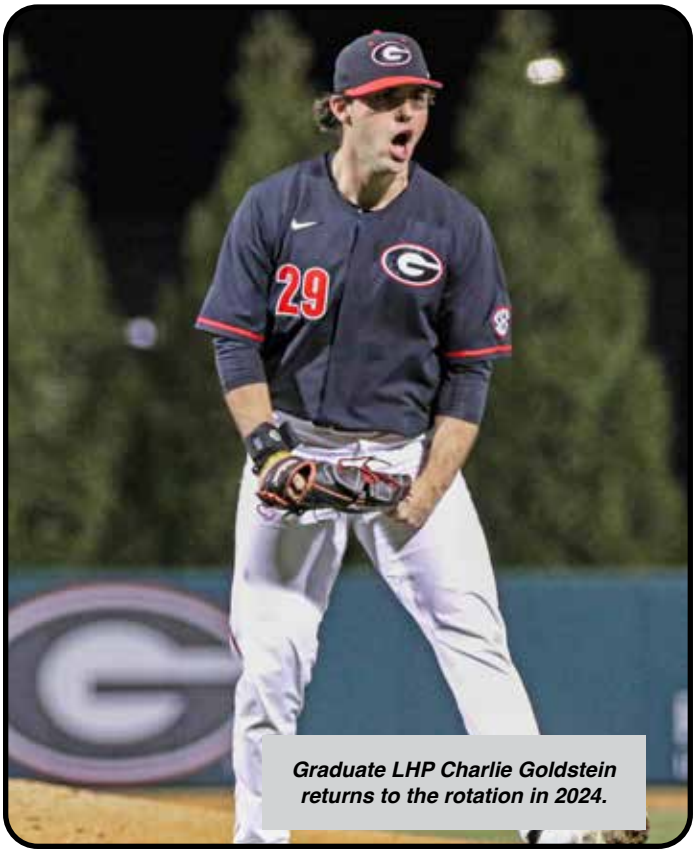
"In a perfect world, we have a four-man rotation," said Johnson. "We will use a lot of matchups and rely on our analytics too. We have pieces on the mound and will have to stay healthy. We want to put all our guys in the best position for success."

The Schedule

Georgia's schedule features 35 contests at Foley Field. The 30-game Southeastern Conference slate includes SEC home series with Alabama. Missouri, Ole Miss, Vanderbilt and Florida. Georgia's SEC road trips will be against Kentucky, Tennessee, Miss. State, Texas A&M and South Carolina. The Bulldogs will play a three-game series with in-state rival Georgia Tech (one game each on campus and at Coolray Field in Lawrenceville) to highlight the non-conference action.

The season begins Feb. 16 with a three-game series at Foley Field against UNC Ashville.

The top 12 teams in the league will advance to the SEC Tournament slated for May 21-26 in Hoover, Ala. NCAA Regional and Super Regional action gets underway in June, and the final eight teams standing will battle it out at the College World Series in Omaha, Neb., from June 14-24.



Graduate LHP Charlie Goldstein returns to the rotation in 2024.

Wes JOHNSON

Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach
1st Season at UGA
(Arkansas Monticello '94)

#49

Wes Johnson, the renowned pitching coach for LSU, was named the Ike Cousins head baseball coach at the University of Georgia on June 5, 2023.

A native of Sherwood, Ark., Johnson became the first pitching coach in Major League Baseball (MLB) history to make the move directly from the college ranks to the big leagues when he was hired by the Minnesota Twins in November of 2018. He served as a collegiate pitching coach since 2008 with stints in the Southeastern Conference at Mississippi State and Arkansas before joining the Twins. Minnesota was the leading the American League Central Division in June of 2022 when he opted to return to the college game at LSU.

Johnson remained with the Tigers until their 2023 season was complete, culminating in the program's seventh national title. They were the No. 5 NCAA Tournament National Seed and advanced to the College World Series (CWS) in Omaha, Neb. The Tigers made their first CWS appearance since 2017 and won their first national title since 2009. LSU finished with a 54-17 record. LSU had a school record 13 players (eight pitchers) selected in the MLB Draft including the first (Paul Skenes, RHP) and second overall (Dylan Crews, OF) picks.

The Twins won their division in Johnson's first two years directing the pitching staff, and in 2020, the club ranked fourth in the Majors in ERA, WHIP and ninth in strikeouts per nine innings. Ace right-hander Kenta Maeda posted a 2.70 Earned Run Average (ERA) and a 6-1 mark to earn a runner-up finish for the American League Cy Young Award.

During his time as a college coach, 38 of Johnson's pitchers have been drafted by MLB teams, and he has been at the forefront of utilizing Trackman technology. The 2023 LSU ace Paul Skenes (13-2, 1.69 ERA, SEC record 209 Ks in 122.2 IP), who was named the National Pitcher of the Year by multiple outlets, was the number one overall draft pick in 2023, signing with the Pittsburgh Pirates for a record $9.2 million bonus. As pitching coach at Arkansas, Johnson helped the 2018 Razorbacks reach the College World Series Finals as they finished 48-21. The top pitcher on that 2018 staff was Blaine Knight who went 14-0 with a 2.80 ERA and was a third-round pick of the Baltimore Orioles.

In his one season at Mississippi State, Johnson was instrumental in a dramatic turnaround by the Bulldogs going from worst to first. After winning only eight SEC games the previous year and having the highest ERA in the league, the 2016 club claimed the SEC regular-season title and advanced to an NCAA Super Regional. MSU won 44 games, its most since 1997. He produced six pitchers that were selected in the MLB Draft including Golden Spikes Award semifinalist Dakota Hudson who went 34th overall to the St. Louis Cardinals.

In four seasons at Dallas Baptist University (DBU), Johnson helped the Patriots to three NCAA Regional appearances, had 14 pitchers drafted and his pitching staffs set single season records for almost every major statistical category including ERA, strikeouts and saves. In 2015, DBU had five pitchers chosen in the first 12 rounds. Prior to Johnson's arrival (1967-2011), DBU had only six pitchers drafted in the first 10 rounds. The 2015 Patriots won a school-record 46 games, hosted their first NCAA Regional and earned the program's highest final ranking.

During his three seasons in the Southland Conference at the University of Central Arkansas (UCA), Johnson's pitching staffs set Division I school records in ERA, WHIP, strikeouts, opponent batting average and fewest walks. In 2009 while on staff at Southern Arkansas, the Muleriders went 52-11 and were ranked No.1 in the Division II poll for 12 weeks. One of his star pitchers was Hayden Simpson who became the first-round pick of the Chicago Cubs in the 2010 MLB Draft.

Before going to UCA, Johnson spent four seasons as the head coach of Abundant Life High School in his hometown of Sherwood. He guided the Owls to a 102-25 record including one state title and two state championship game appearances.

Johnson earned a bachelor's degree in marketing from the University of Arkansas Monticello in 1994. He completed a master's degree in kinesiology in 2017. Johnson and his wife Angie, have three children: Ryan, Anna and Ava; and one grandson, Mason.

2013-15: St. Johns River (Fla.) State College, Assistant Coach
2015-16: Mississippi State, Coordinator of Baseball Camps/Volunteer Coach
2016-17: Mississippi State, Assistant Coach/Recruiting Coordinator
2020-23: Kentucky, Assistant Coach/Recruiting Coordinator
2023-current: Georgia, Assistant Coach

Will Coggin, a former player and coach in the Southeastern Conference, begins his first season as an assistant coach at the University of Georgia on the staff of Ike Cousins head baseball coach Wes Johnson.

Coggin comes to the Bulldogs after spending the past four years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Kentucky under Nick Mingione. In 2023, Coggin helped the Wildcats advance to an NCAA Super Regional for only the second time in school history, and UK reached the 40-win mark for just the seventh time in program history. In SEC action, the Wildcats led the conference in batting average, doubles, triples, stolen bases and fielding percentage and finished second in on base percentage, hit by pitches and turning double plays. The Wildcats led the nation with a school record .984 fielding percentage.

Coggin, a former Mississippi State infielder and assistant coach, has proven adept in recruiting and as a hitting guru who has helped developed 17 players who have reached the Major Leagues. Additionally, he's been to the College World Series as a player, won multiple conference championships with St. Johns River State College and an SEC title while at his alma mater.

Coggin served as the hitting coach for the 2016 MSU club that won the SEC championship, was a national seed in the NCAA Tournament and saw 11 players selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including seven members making it to the Major Leagues. It was his second stint in Starkville, having played for the Bulldogs from 2007-08 and served on former UK and Mississippi State coach John Cohen's staff from 2009-12. He spent three seasons at St. Johns River State College in Palatka, Fla., before returning to State before the 2016 season.

In 2016, the Bulldogs improved their team batting average 42 points (.271 to .313), on-base percentage jumped from .372 to .407 and slugging percentage increased by 91 points. The club hit 30 more home runs, 60 more extra-base hits and scored 90 more runs on the way to 20 more wins.

Perhaps most impressive was Coggin's work with then-freshman outfielder Jake Mangum, who captured the batting title and became the first Mississippi State player to win SEC Freshman of the Year and first freshman to win the C Spire Ferriss Trophy, which is awarded to the best college baseball player in Mississippi. Mangum would go on to become the SEC's all-time hits leader and helped the program to a pair of trips to the CWS in 2018 and 2019.

He also played an important role in the development of 2017 SEC Player of the Year and First-Team All-American Brent Rooker, who won the SEC's Triple Crown for batting average, home runs and RBI on his way to being named the Roy F. Kramer SEC Male Athlete of the Year. Rooker made his debut with Minnesota in 2020 and was named a 2023 MLB All-Star with Oakland.

Following the 2016 campaign, Coggin, a native of Booneville, Miss., was promoted to the recruiting coordinator role when Mingione accepted the Kentucky head coaching job. MSU went to two Super Regionals and won the SEC regular season title and the SEC Tournament title (in different seasons).

In between his two stints at Mississippi State, Coggin helped St. Johns River State College post 122 victories in three seasons, including a 57-14 mark in the Mid-Florida Conference. The 122 wins from 2013-15 were the most by a Florida junior college and the program spent time in the top five nationally in 2014 before being ranked No. 1 for much of the 2015 campaign. The Vikings won a school-record 47 games in 2015, won three straight league titles for the first time since 1966-68 and won their first Florida State Tournament game in 38 years.

While at SJRSC, Coggin's calling card was player development, where 25 players went on to sign with Division I-A programs and 45 with four-year schools. Current big-leaguer Nate Lowe (Texas Rangers) earned NJCAA First-Team All-American honors in 2015 after hitting .372 with 59 runs, 53 RBI and 17 home runs in 56 games before signing with Mississippi State. Lowe went on to win the MLB Silver Slugger award for the Texas Rangers in 2023. The 2015 SJR team also featured 2023 Gold Glove winning centerfielder Myles Straw of the Cleveland Guardians.

Before getting into coaching, Coggin was a middle infielder on Mississippi State's 2007 and 2008 teams after two seasons at Northeast Mississippi Community College. He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2010 from Mississippi State before adding a master's degree in sports administration in 2012.

Josh SIMPSON

Asst. Coach
1st Season at UGA
(NW Oklahoma St. '03)

#74

Josh Simpson, who has nearly two decades of experience in college and professional baseball, enters his first season as an assistant coach at the University of Georgia on the staff of Ike Cousins head baseball coach Wes Johnson.

During the 2023 season, Simpson served as the director of baseball operations for the LSU baseball program and coach Jay Johnson. The Tigers captured the national title, finishing with a 54-17 mark. Before joining LSU, Simpson was an area supervisor for the Texas Rangers scouting department. He was a Major League Baseball (MLB) scout with the Rangers for seven years until returning to the collegiate ranks at LSU. During his time with the Rangers, five players he signed reached the Major Leagues.

Prior to his MLB experience, Simpson served as the head coach at New Mexico Junior College (NMJC) from 2008-15. He became the second winningest coach in program history, tallying a 283-163 record. A total of more than 18 players were drafted by MLB. His teams qualified for the regional tournament in eight consecutive seasons. In 2014, he led NMJC to the Western Junior College Athletic Conference title, and he was named the WJAC Coach of the Year.

Simpson's collegiate experience includes serving as the hitting coach at Central Arizona College, the volunteer coach at the University of New Mexico and an assistant coach at Lamar (Colo.) Community College. The 2005 Lamar squad claimed the Region IX title and finished second in the Western District Playoffs. Lamar CC posted a record of 51-11 and a No. 4 final national ranking. During his coaching career, 10 of his players have reached the Major Leagues.

A native of Los Alamos, N.M., Simpson received a bachelor's of science degree in health and wellness in 2003 from Northwestern Oklahoma State, and he earned a master's degree in education 2010 from East Central University in Ada, Okla.

Simpson and his wife Amanda have two children, twins Cooper and Koen (2).

Brock BENNETT

Asst. Coach
5th Season at UGA
(Alabama '10)

#41

Atlanta native Brock Bennett begins his first season as an assistant coach on Ike Cousins head baseball coach Wes Johnson's Georgia staff. For the past four years, Bennett was a volunteer assistant with the Bulldogs under Scott Stricklin. During this time, he worked with the catchers, infielders and served as the first base coach. Also, he was in charge of on-campus recruiting and assisted in the coordination of camps.

The 2023 Bulldogs posted a 29-27 mark. The team overcame a 1-9 SEC start to go 10-10 over its final 20 league games to qualify for the SEC Tournament. The team set a school record with a .981 fielding percentage. The Bulldogs tallied 101 home runs, the third most in school history. Georgia's lineup featured All-America first baseman/outfielder Charlie Condon who was voted the consensus National Freshman Hitter of the Year plus was named the SEC Freshman of the Year by league coaches.

The 2022 squad advanced to the NCAA Chapel Hill (N.C.) Regional and posted a 36-23 overall record including a 15-15 mark in the SEC, which was good for second place in the Eastern Division. The Bulldogs were a fixture in the top 25 team rankings during the regular season. Bennett's work with the defense helped the squad post a .978 fielding percentage while the team batted .284 which was the highest since 2010.

The 2021 Bulldogs spent 11 weeks in the nation's top 25 rankings and reached as high as No. 5 before a slew of injuries eventually took its toll on the club. Still, Georgia went 8-14 against top 10 ranked teams including a winning a road series over No. 1 Vanderbilt, which marked the Commodores only home series loss. The Bulldogs earned a No. 8 seed for the SEC Tournament and went 1-2 with a win over LSU to end the season at 31-25.

Georgia was poised to have another memorable season in 2020 when the campaign ended after 18 games due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Bulldogs finished the year ranked as high as No. 2 nationally with a 14-4 record. Along with working at Georgia, his experience includes stops at Georgia State, his alma mater Alabama and Georgia Perimeter College (GPC).

Bennett began his coaching career by spending three years as an assistant at GPC under Brett Campbell and Jeremy Brotherton while helping the Jaguars win a pair of region titles. He coached the first-team all-conference catcher all three years, and four GPC players were drafted during his time there. Then, he was named the volunteer coach at Georgia State (GSU) on Greg Frady's staff.

2023-current: Assistant Coach, Georgia

He helped develop catcher Nick Gatewood, who went on the become an 11th-round draft pick of the San Diego Padres in the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft. Bennett had an opportunity to coach at his alma mater when he joined Brad Bohannon's staff in 2017-18. He spent the 2019 season as an assistant coach at GSU, directing the Panther offense and working with the infielders.

A graduate of Greater Atlanta Christian, Bennett was a catcher/infielder at Alabama (2007-11), where he posted a .314 career batting average while starting more than 100 games, including 97 starts behind the plate. He saw action at third base and second base while setting a single season (21) and career mark for sacrifice bunts (28). As a senior, he batted .338 with 22 RBI and 39 runs scored plus a team-high .992 fielding percentage. During his career, the Crimson Tide advanced to four straight NCAA Regionals including a Super Regional in 2010. He made the 2010 Southeastern Conference All-Tournament team, was named National Player of the Week by College Baseball 360 and garnered a spot on the Johnny Bench Award Watch List. He earned a degree in business management from Alabama. He was selected by San Francisco in the 33rd round of the 2011 MLB Draft.

Bennett is married to the former Ashley Skorcz. They have two children, Chandler (5) and Chase (1).

Derek GROOMER

Director
Sports Performance
1st Season at UGA
(Arkansas '18)

Derek Groomer, who served as the head of baseball performance – sport science coordinator for national champion LSU in 2023, begins his first season on the Georgia staff of Ike Cousins head coach Wes Johnson.

Groomer will lead the Bulldogs sports performance program. He was a part of the Tigers staff that helped the program capture their seventh national title. The 2023 LSU team posted a 54-17 mark and had a school record 13 players selected in the Major League Baseball Draft including the first and second overall picks.

Prior to going to LSU, Groomer spent two years as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Alabama Birmingham, working with the Blazers baseball and volleyball programs. He spent part of 2020 assisting the TCU baseball program in strength and conditioning under the guidance of assistant athletic director of human performance Zach Dechant.

A native of Rogers, Ark., Groomer pursued a sports performance career while completing his degree at the University of Arkansas. He gained experience as a volunteer assistant at TCU during the summer of 2018. Also, he worked as an intern with Blaine Kinsley and the Razorbacks baseball program from 2018-2020. He spent a portion of 2019 with the New York Mets minor league organization in Port Saint Lucie, Fla., as they founded a sport science department.

Kevin KNIGHT

Director of Baseball Operations
1st Season at UGA
(George Mason '14)

Kevin Knight, who spent five seasons with TCU, joined the Georgia staff of Ike Cousins head coach Wes Johnson in July of 2023 as the Director of Baseball Operations.

Knight was a part of Kirk Saarloos' staff that finished tied for third at the 2023 College World Series (CWS). TCU posted a final record of 44-24 and made its first CWS appearance since 2017. During the 2022 and 2023 seasons, he served as the Director of Player Personnel for the Horned Frogs.

In his first three years with TCU, Knight served as the Coordinator of Program Development. Overall, Knight was responsible for handling all technology, analytics, and video used in the program. Additionally, he assisted with recruiting and helped managed the team's data Twitter account.

Before going to TCU, Knight spent time working with teams in Major League Baseball, the National Football League and the National Basketball Association, handling video, scouting and miscellaneous operations. Knight's professional experiences includes stints with the Texas Rangers, San Diego Padres, Cleveland Indians, Cleveland Browns, Washington Redskins and the Washington Wizards.

A native of Keller, Texas., Knight earned a degree in sport management from George Mason University in 2014. He and his wife Debbie reside in Athens.

Zach ADAMS

Associate Athletic Trainer
4th Season at UGA
(Alabama '09)

Zach Adams joined the UGA Athletic Association's Sports Medicine staff in March 2021 as an associate athletic trainer. The 2023 season will mark his fourth with the Bulldog baseball program.

His primary responsibilities include prevention, immediate care, management, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries.

Adams came to Georgia after spending eight years at the College of Charleston, where he oversaw the sports medicine coverage for the baseball team. Prior to working with the Cougars, Adams worked at the University of North Georgia in Dahlonega, Ga., overseeing the medical care for their baseball team for two seasons.

A native of Cullman, Ala., Adams has been a certified athletic trainer since 2009. He graduated with a M.S. in Sport Management from Florida State University in 2011 and a B.S. in Athletic Training from the University of Alabama in 2009.

Dual-Threat Dawgs

In the modern era of Georgia Baseball, there have been a handful of two-way Bulldogs. In fact, 3B/Closer Aaron Schunk was honored as the 2019 John Olerud Award winner by the College Baseball Foundation as the nation's top two-way player after being a finalist for the award in 2018. Tucker Bradley in 2020 was the last Bulldog to excel as an outfielder and relief pitcher.

One of the greatest dual-threat Bulldogs was All-American LHP/DH Derek Lilliquist. A first round draft pick of Atlanta in 1987 (6th overall), he spent eight years pitching in the Majors and then served as the pitching coach for the St. Louis Cardinals and Washington Nationals.

Here's a look at a few of the top two-way Bulldogs since Lilliquist who finished his Bulldog career with a .318 batting average, 35 home runs, 135 RBI plus went 31-12 with a 3.30 ERA in 316 innings pitched.

Home Runs For Hometown Rivals Special Olympics Baseball Game

Each year, the University of Georgia baseball team participates in various community service events. In 10 of the past 12 years, Bulldog student-athletes from various sports have staged a baseball game at Foley Field or the Payne Indoor Facility featuring Special Olympic players. The game was canceled in 2020-21 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The fundraiser benefits Athens-Clarke County Special Olympics. The event is billed as "Home Runs for Hometown Rivals" and features a game between special needs Clarke-County athletes from the Westside of Athens versus Eastside players. Sometimes rain forces the event indoors, but a good time is still had by all.

The unique event features pregame ceremonies, introductions and the student-athletes help the participants swing bats and run the bases. The event has raised more than $2,000 annually through ticket sales, concessions, donations and corporate sponsorships.

*At Foley Field, the Bulldogs are 25-11 in the NCAA postseason including 17-2 in elimination games.

In honor of Athletic Director of Administration Reid Parker, Coach Dick Copas, and Faculty Athletic Representative Dr. Bill Powell, the right field fan area is dedicated to these three remarkable men who served the University of Georgia, the UGA Athletic Association and the Athens community for over 30 years. Never seeking personal credit or recognition, they represent all those who give unsung, lifelong service to UGA. They called themselves "The Garden Club" for their informal meetings.
The Garden Club Terrace serves as a unique location of enjoyment and beauty for all fans at Foley Field.

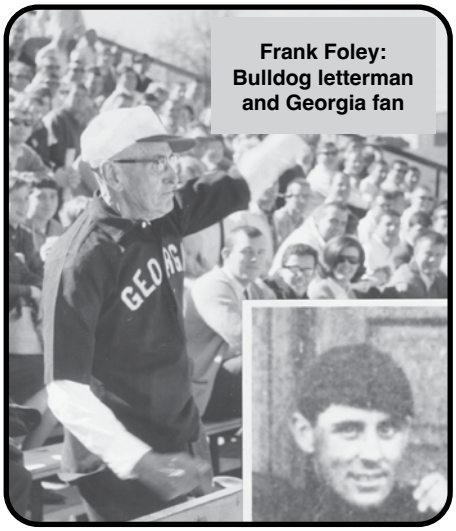
The Garden Club Terrace

A special dedication ceremony took place on April 2, 2016 in the right field fan area of Foley Field when it was officially named "The Garden Club Terrace." This honors former Athletic Director of Administration Reid Parker, former Bulldog golf coach Dick Copas, and former Faculty Athletic Representative Dr. Bill Powell.

This trio of remarkable men served the University of Georgia, the UGA Athletic Association, and the Athens community for more than 30 years. They called themselves "The Garden Club" for their informal meetings.A permanent plaque honoring the trio was unveiled that day (at right).

It is located by the right field fence and features Parker, Copas and Powell. Members of the Parker, Copas and Powell families, along with J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Greg McGarity were in attendance at the dedication ceremony. Then, they all cheered on the Bulldogs to a 12-4 win over No. 21 Alabama.

FOLEY FIELD



Frank Foley: Bulldog letterman and Georgia fan

Judge Frank Foley is considered one of Georgia's all-time greats for his contributions both on and off the field. Foley was a part of the 1908 Southern championship team that recorded a mark of 20-2.

He was a distinguished alumnus who is remembered by many as a kind and caring gentleman. His enthusiasm for the University of Georgia was second to none.

Home of The Bulldogs

Foley Field has served as Georgia's home since 1966, and the stadium was constructed in 1990. The Foley family of Columbus is synonymous with Georgia baseball.

The current $45 million renovation of Foley Field will continue to elevate both the player and fan experience at UGA's baseball facility. The entire project is slated to be completed by the start of the 2025 season. Improvements will be made along the left field line and will include a new pitching lab and hitting tunnels, coaches' office and other amenities. For the fans, there will be multiple new premium spaces as well as enhanced fan experiences throughout the venue. For 2024, the Bulldogs already have a new locker room and team meeting room plus new stadium LED lights.

Foley Field has served as a memorable postseason advantage for the Bulldogs. Georgia is 25-11 in the NCAA postseason in Athens including 17-2 in elimination games.

Bulldog fans have witnessed Georgia clinch trips to the College World Series in 2001, 2006 and 2008. Also, the Bulldogs won an NCAA Regional at Foley Field in 2004 and eventually advanced to the CWS that year too.

The history of Foley Field includes a 2015 project, and the large-scale measures of that revival included the following: Redesigning the stadium's main entrance, additional restrooms and concession areas, an expanded press box, club-level and field-level seating, improvements to the dugouts, Georgia's locker room and team lounge, training room and batting cages. In 2013, improvements to Foley Field included the right field area formerly known as "Kudzu Hill," (now the Garden Club Terrace), the installation of a new high-definition video scoreboard and new trees behind the outfield fence.

All-Time Georgia Baseball Facilities

Years	Facility
1886-1911	Herty Field
1912-43	Sanford Field
1946-1961	Unnamed/Ag Hill
1962-1965	Unnamed Freshman Field
1966-present	Foley Field

Georgia did not field a team in 1944-45 due to World War II.*

Before Foley Field

The first home for Georgia baseball was Herty Field from 1886 until 1911. Then, it was Sanford Field (below) until 1943. Pond Lippett threw the first no-hitter at home in Georgia history, blanking Pittsburgh 6-0 in 1920. Fred Sale pitched a perfect game at Sanford Field in 1923, a 4-0 win over Virginia. It was the first perfect game in Bulldog history and one of only two to date.

After World War II, the Diamond Dogs played on a field with no name located on "Ag. Hill," where Stegeman Coliseum is today. When construction for the Coliseum began in 1962, Georgia moved to its freshman field, which is next to where the Butts-Mehre building is now. In 1966, Georgia moved to its current location, and two years later, it was named Foley Field. On May 5, 1990, a $3.5 million refurbished Foley Field was dedicated and the latest upgrades came in 2015.

Bulldogs Finish 29-27 As Stricklin Era Ends After 10 Seasons

Bulldogs End Season At SEC Tournament

The 2023 Georgia Bulldogs posted a 29-27 record (11-19 SEC) and ended their season at the SEC Tournament.

Georgia picked up three series wins over ranked league opponents, claiming a double header over No. 10 Kentucky, sweeping No. 5 Arkansas and topping No. 18 Tennessee. The most dramatic series win came versus the Razorbacks as Georgia plated five runs in the ninth in game three. Graduate Connor Tate smashed a game-tying grand slam and junior Parks Harber followed with a walk-off home run.

For the year, Georgia batted .283 with 101 home runs, posted a 6.44 ERA and set a school record with a .981 fielding percentage. The home run tally ranked third in Bulldog history for a season.

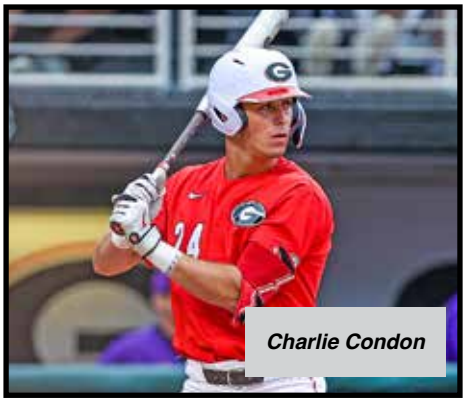
`Charlie Condon was the consensus National Freshman of the Year. Condon and Connor Tate were named All-Americans while outfielder Ben Anderson earned SEC Co-Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors.

On May 26, University of Georgia J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks announced a change in leadership of the baseball program. Scott Stricklin's tenure ended after 10 seasons. He posted a record of 299-236-1 (122-146-1 in SEC). The Bulldogs advanced to three NCAA Tournaments including two as national seeds under Stricklin.

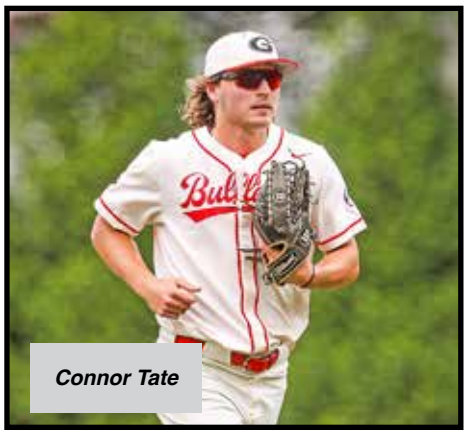
On June 5, Wes Johnson, the renowned pitching coach for LSU, was named the new Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach for the Bulldogs. The Tigers (54-17) went on to win the 2023 College World Series.

Top Performers In 2023

◆ Redshirt freshman 1B/OF Charlie Condon completed the Triple Crown for the Bulldogs, leading the team in batting average (.386), home runs (25) and RBI (67). He started all 56 games with 29 starts at first base, 21 in right field and six in left field. He posted a .992 fielding percentage. During the season, he had a 37-game on base streak, a 24-game hitting streak and registered at least one home run in every SEC series. His honors included:



Charlie Condon



Connor Tate

*In 1987, Georgia finished the regular season with the best SEC mark at 18-8 but the SEC title went to league tournament winner Miss. State. MSU went 4-0 in the tournament after going 13-13 during the year. Starting in 1988, the SEC title went to the regular season champion and the tournament winner received the league's automatic NCAA bid.

Note: Georgia has won five SEC Eastern Division titles (1955, 1975, 2001, 2004 and 2008). The SEC Championship format has varied since the incepetion of the league in 1933. Some years, the SEC has had divisions. In 1977, the league began holding an SEC Tournament following the regular season.

THIS IS SEC BASEBALL

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 90-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

Arkansas and Florida shared the 2023 SEC regular-season title after going 20-10 in league action. Vanderbilt won the 2023 SEC Tournament title over Texas A&M in Hoover, Ala.

The 2023 SEC individual award winners were the following:
SEC Player of the Year: Dylan Crews (LSU)
SEC Pitcher of the Year: Paul Skenes (LSU)
SEC Freshman of the Year: Charlie Condon (Georgia)
SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year (2): Ben Anderson (Georgia); Andrew Pinckney (UA)
SEC Coach of the Year: Dave Van Horn (Arkansas)

A record-tying and nation-leading 10 SEC teams earned a bid to the 2023 NCAA Tournament, and a record eight SEC programs were selected among the 16 NCAA Regional hosts. LSU claimed the league's ninth national title in 14 years, beating Florida in the CWS Finals. An SEC squad has appeared in the CWS 37 of the last 38 years when it was held (It was canceled in 2020 due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic).

An SEC team has made the CWS Championship series annually from 2008-2015 along with 2017-2019 and from 2021-2023.

SEC ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL SINCE 1984

In 1984, the SEC developed the Academic Baseball Honor Roll to recognize those athletes who had a 3.0 grade point average (either cumulative or during the past year), and had 24 semester or 26 quarter hours countable toward a degree. Prior to the 1996-97 season, the SEC dropped the requirement of earning a letter for that season. Starting in 2002, the recipients were chosen from the previous calendar year. A total of 155 Bulldogs have been honored 286 times.

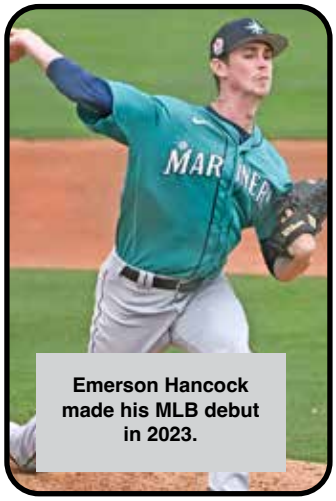
BULLDOG DRAFT FAST FACTS

The Bulldogs have a string of 51 straight seasons with at least one player signing a professional contract. UGA led the nation in 2009 with a school record 11 players selected.

Georgia has had 11 first-rounders in school history:

1976: Larry Littleton, OF (Secondary phase/6th by Pittsburgh)
1980: Jeff Pyburn, OF (5th by San Diego)
1987: Derek Lilliquist, LHP (6th by Atlanta)
1987: Cris Carpenter, RHP (14th by St. Louis)
1992: Kendall Rhine, RHP (37th by Houston)
2006: Brooks Brown, RHP (34th by Arizona)
2008: Gordon Beckham, SS (8th by Chicago)
2008: Joshua Fields, RHP (20th by Seattle), Also in December of 2012, Fields went first overall in the Rule 5 draft to Houston.
2011: Zach Cone, OF (37th by Texas)
2016: Robert Tyler, RHP (38th by Colorado)
2020: Emerson Hancock, RHP (6th overall, Seattle)



Emerson Hancock made his MLB debut in 2023.

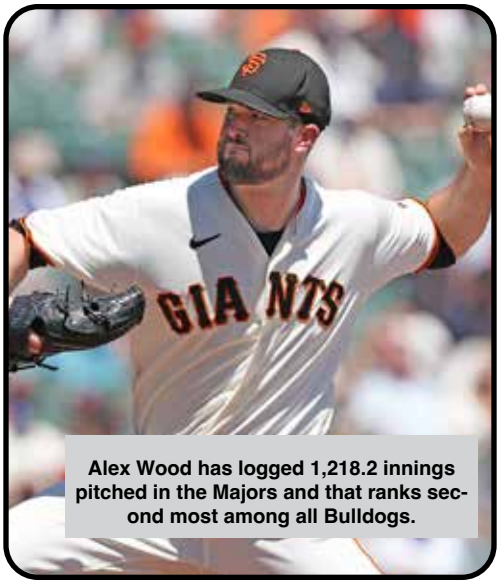
BULLDOG MAJOR LEAGUERS

Forty former Bulldogs have reached the Major League level. It began with Claud Derrick for the Philadelphia Athletics in 1909 and continued in 2023 with Emerson Hancock. Also, there have been six UGA students who never lettered for Georgia but went on to become major league ballplayers: Bill Calhoun (1913), Hal Epps (1938, '40, '43-44), Jack Fisher (1959-69), Ralph Head (1923), Tully Sparks (1897, '99-1910) and Jon Warden (1968).

Along with Hancock, former Bulldogs in the Majors last season included Kyle Farmer (Minnesota), Jared Walsh (L.A. Angels) and Alex Wood (San Francisco).Looking back in MLB history, Derrick played on Connie Mack's World Championship teams in 1910 and 1911 and, while recovering from a broken ankle in Baltimore in 1912, he was the first roommate of a rookie pitcher named George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Nolen Richardson, a Georgia standout in football and basketball in the 1920s, played six years in the majors and returned to coach the Bulldogs in 1951. Johnny Rucker was featured in LIFE as a promising rookie in 1940.

While many Bulldogs enjoyed success throughout their career, one who stands out is Spurgeon "Spud" Chandler. Chandler was a part of seven World Series teams for the New York Yankees, including winners of six championships. Actually, he first played in Yankee Stadium as a member of the Bulldog football team. Georgia defeated New York University 7-6 on Nov. 7, 1931. Following his graduation in 1932, the Carnesville, Ga., native spent five years in the minors before returning to Yankee Stadium as a major leaguer. In his 11-year career, his finest season came in 1943. He led the league in Wins, Earned Run Average and Complete Games, going 20-4 with a 1.64 ERA and 20 complete games. He went 2-0 with a 0.50 ERA in the 1943 World Series, winning game one and pitching a shutout in the clinching game five over St. Louis. Wood was part of the 2020 World Series Champion Los Angeles Dodgers.



Alex Wood has logged 1,218.2 innings pitched in the Majors and that ranks second most among all Bulldogs.

MLB TRIVIA: Larry Littleton and former St. Louis Cardinal outfielder Michael Potter hold the MLB record for most career at bats by a non-pitcher without a hit. Littleton made the Indians 1981 team out of spring training. He made his debut in game two that season, pinch-hitting in the ninth inning. He grounded out to eventual Hall of Famer Robin Yount. His lone RBI came on a bases-loaded line out off Minnesota's Jerry Koosman that Mickey Hatcher ran down. Most of his at-bats came as a pinch-hitter, and he started just four games over a 45-day span.

Academic All-Americans
(voted on by *CoSIDA)

To be eligible to become a member of the Academic All-America team, a college scholar-athlete must be nominated by his sports information director, hold a minimum of 3.3 cumulative GPA on a 4.0 scale, be a starter or key reserve on the varsity and reached sophomore athletic and academic standing.

There are eight geographic districts across the country. Scholar-athletes must be first named to the All-District team and then they will be placed on the national ballot for consideration to determine the national Academic All-America Team.

GORDON BECKHAM MVP AWARD

Starting in 2014, the annual Most Valulable Player (MVP) Award was named in honor of one of UGA's greatest players, All-American Gordon Beckham. He earned Southeastern Conference Player of the Year as well as SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in his career.

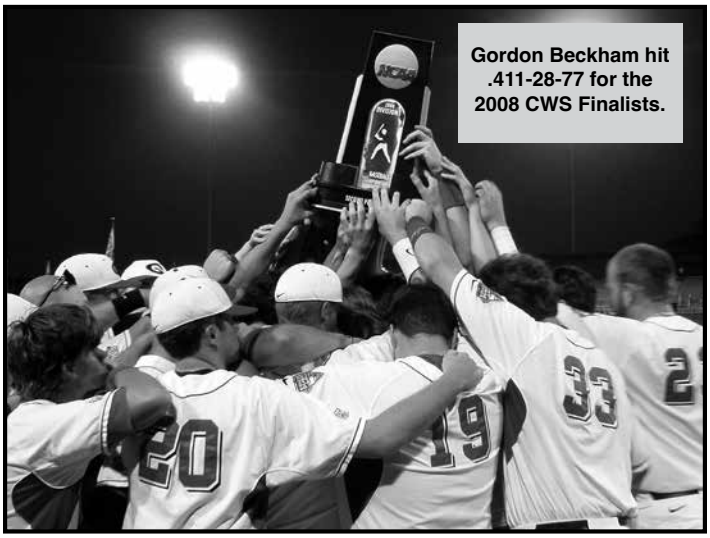
"Gordon possesses all the qualities a program is looking for in their most valuable player, and he continues to represent Georgia in a first class manner as a professional in the Major Leagues," said Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach Scott Stricklin. "It's a tribute to how he valued the importance of excelling in the classroom and on the field as a Georgia Bulldog."

Beckham arrived at UGA in 2006 as an undrafted infielder and went on to establish himself as one of the best ever to wear the red and black. He was tabbed an All-American and an Academic All-American. He started all 197 games of his three-year career, leading Georgia to a pair of College World Series appearances including the 2008 CWS Finals.

He was a first round draft pick of the Chicago White Sox in 2008, made his MLB debut less then a year later and was named the 2009 American League Rookie of the Year by the MLB Players Association and The Sporting News.

Aaron Schunk claimed the team's Triple Crown in 2019 at .339-15-58 plus served as the closer with 12 saves.

Charlie Condon posted one of the greatest rookie seasons in Bulldog history in 2023.



Gordon Beckham hit .411-28-77 for the 2008 CWS Finalists.

USA BASEBALL TEAM

USA Baseball, based in Cary, N.C., is the national governing body of amateur baseball in the United States and a member of the United States Olympic Committee (USOC).

The organization selects, trains, and supports the USA Baseball Team and a Junior Team which participates in international competitions, including the Olympic Games and World Championships.

While the first official exhibition baseball game in the Olympics was a 1912 contest in Stockholm, Sweden, reports exist that an unrecognized baseball game was played at the 1904 Games in St. Louis, Mo. A number of single game exhibitions were also played at the 1936, 1952, 1956, and 1964 Olympic Games. The 1992 Games in Barcelona was the debut of baseball as a medal sport.

OLYMPIC TEAM

1936: Henry Wagnon, C (Bostwick, Ga.)

Wagnon was one of 22 delegates to the International Sports Congress whose members demonstrated American Games to other nations in Berlin. Although other countries had planned to send teams for the baseball tournament, none did. So, the USA squad split into two teams and played a night game before a world-record crowd reported to be over 125,000. The World Amateurs defeated the USA Olympics 6-5.

COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM (Summer)

1987: Cris Carpenter, RHP (Gainesville, Ga.)
(1.37 ERA, 5 SV, 59.1 IP, 69 Ks, USA Record 32 games pitched)
Team: 34-9, Silver Medal in Pan Am Games and Intercon. Cup

1989: Dave Fleming, LHP (Mahopac, N.Y.)
(*6-3, 6.32 ERA, 14 games, 8 starts), *TPosted a team-high 6 wins.
Team: 27-17, 6th in Intercontinental Cup (1-5)

1994: Brian Powell, RHP (Bainbridge, Ga.)
(2-2, 4.76 ERA, 9 games, 7 starts)
Opening Night Starter, beat Nicaragua 7-4 in Millington, Tenn.
Team: 24-13, 4-4 in World Championships, 6th Place

2002: Clint Sammons, C (Stone Mountain, Ga.)
(8 games, 5 starts before hit by a pitch in a game that broke his wrist and ended his tour. Perfect fielding percentage with 63 putouts, 11 assists, threw out 33% of runners, two pickoffs, batted .100-0-2 in 20 at bats);
Team: 23-7, 2nd at FISU World Championships

2012: Kyle Farmer, SS (Atlanta, Ga.)
(17 games, .250 with five doubles, eight RBI and a .967 FLDG.%)
Starting shortstop helped team go 12-5 and a bronze medal in the Netherlands. Four of team's five losses came to Cuba that had 12 World Baseball Classic veterans. Farmer had 3 RBI during medal round of the tournament. The team went 2-3 against Cuba in Havana and was the first U.S. squad to travel there in 16 years.

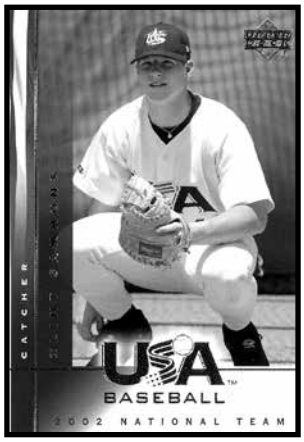
2015: Robert Tyler, RHP (Cordele, Ga.)
(3-0, 1.00 ERA, 3 games, 2 starts)
Led Team USA with 3-0 record. Won both starts including Opening Day and the clinching-victory over Cuba in front of a sellout crowd of 10,352 fans in Charlotte at BB&T Ballpark as team went 9-8 overall.

2019: Cole Wilcox, RHP
(Chickamauga, Ga.)
(1-0, 2.57 ERA, 4 games, 1 start)
Pitched three scoreless innings for a win over Cuba..Tossed 2.2 scoreless innings as part of a combined one-hit shutout versus Japan...Held opponents to a .217 batting average...Team went 8-6 overall with series wins over Chinese Taipei and Cuba.

2023: Charlie Condon, 1B/OF (Marietta, Ga.)
(10 games, 10 starts, .256-3-11, .538 SLG% and a 1.000 FLDG.%)
Started all 10 games and helped team go 7-3 including a five-game sweep in the 20th USA vs. Chinese Taipei International Friendship Series.

In December of 2023, USA Baseball announced its annual organizational award winners. Condon's walk-off single for the Collegiate National Team on July 4th against Chinese Taipei garnered him the International Performance of the Year Award.

Georgia pitcher Brian Powell was a member of the 1994 USA squad that had six SEC players.



Clint Sammons was part of the 2002 USA Team.

USA National Fall/Summer Team Trials

1997: Zack Frachiseur, RHP (Conyers, Ga.)
2000: Jeff Keppinger, SS (Auburn, Ga.)
2010: Zach Cone, OF (Lilburn, Ga.)

The 1990 season will long be remembered as the finest ever produced at Georgia.

Catcher Terry Childers' play in the seventh preserved a 2-1 lead as Stan Payne and Dave Fleming combined to lead the Bulldogs to the national title.

Georgia was invited to Washington D.C., to discuss the strategy they used with President George Bush, a baseball letterman in his collegiate days at Yale.

Steve Webber compiled a 500-403-1 record in 16 seasons (1981-96) as the head coach at Georgia. He led the Bulldogs to two College World Series appearances (1987, '90), including a national championship in 1990. After his Georgia coaching career, Webber has served as a pitching coach in the following organizations: New York Yankees, San Diego Padres, Houston Astros and Atlanta Braves. He was inducted into UGA's Circle of Honor in 2018. Webber passed away in 2022.

Third Base: Bobby Carlsen, Okla. State; Outfield (3): Jeffrey Hammonds, Stanford, Tim Clark, LSU, Jason Rychlick, Citadel; Designated Hitter: Lyle Mouton, LSU;
+1990 CWS MVP: Mike Rebhan, Georgia

+CWS Note: In 1996, the CWS celebrated its 50th anniversary. All-Decade teams were selected by a panel and Rebhan made it for the 1990s. In the series, he beat Stanford's Mike Mussina twice, going 2-0 with a 1.00 ERA and two complete games.

25th Year Anniversary Of The 1990 National Champions

A total of more than 20 members of the 1990 national championship team returned to Foley Field in 2015 to highlight Lettermen's Day. Head coach Steve Webber threw out the first pitch to catcher Terry Childers while shortstop J.R. Showalter received one of the Distinguished Letterman's Award for Outstanding Athletic Achievement.

NATIONAL AWARDS

THE JOHN OLERUD AWARD

The John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award is presented annually by the College Baseball Foundation. Olerud, who was inducted into the National College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2007, was a standout pitcher and first baseman at Washington State from 1987 through 1989. The first award was presented in 2010. Georgia's Aaron Schunk was the 2019 recipient after being a finalist in 2018. He is the only Bulldog to win the award. In his Bulldog career (2017-19), he played in 154 games with 153 starts. A second round draft pick of the Colorado Rockies in 2019, he batted .339 with 15 home runs and 58 RBI as a junior plus tallied 12 saves to go with a 1-2 mark and 2.49 ERA in 17 appearances. Schunk ranks among the top prospects in the Rockies organization, and in 2022, he had reached Double-A, playing with Hartford.

THE STOPPER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Presented by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association of America (NCBWA) since 2005, this award goes to the top relief pitcher in NCAA Division 1. In 2008, Georgia All-America closer Joshua Fields posted 18 saves to claim the award as he helped guide the Bulldogs the finals of the College World Series. A first round draft pick of Seattle, he made his MLB debut in 2013 and spent six years in the Majors. He was a part of two World Series teams with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

TOP PLAYER AWARDS

In 1985, Ron Wenrich was tabbed the National Freshman of the Year by Baseball America. In 1987, Derek Lilliquist was named Baseball America's National Pitcher of the Year. In 2023, Charlie Condon was a consensus Freshman of the Year. Condon was honored by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball, D1Baseball and the NCBWA.

THE GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD

The Golden Spikes award is given annually to the top amateur baseball player in America. Eight former Bulldogs have been nominated for this prestigious honor including first round picks Emerson Hancock (2020), Gordon Beckham (right) and Joshua Fields in 2008 and second round pick Rich Poythress in 2009. Hancock was a semifinalist in 2019. Hancock and Cole Wilcox made the 2020 preseason watch list, however the award was not presented due to the COVID-19 pandemic canceling much of the season.

Beckham was a finalist for the award while Fields and Poythress were semifinalists. In 1987, not only was it a banner year for the Bulldogs as a team, but also for some individuals. Pitchers Cris Carpenter and Derek Lilliquist were tabbed as nominees for the award. It marked only the second time that two teammates were nominated in the same year. In 1990 former Bulldog pitcher Dave Fleming, who led Georgia to its first-ever national championship, was nominated.

The winner is automatically enshrined in the United States Baseball Federation's Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame. His named is also added to the permanent Golden Spikes Award at the National Baseball Hall of Fame. In addition, the winner also becomes the USBF's nominee for the AAU's Sullivan Award, which goes to the nation's top amateur athlete.

◆ NCAA Record-Tying 8th Inning Outburst In 2023

Georgia secured its first SEC win at Auburn on March 25th with a record 16-run outburst in the eighth inning. The Bulldogs would post a 24-7 victory in eight innings due to the 10-run mercy rule. In the NCAA record book, the only other team to score 16 runs in an 8th inning was Southern Illinois in 1988 versus Murray State and Saint Mary's (Minn). The NCAA mark for runs in an inning is 21 by three teams, most recently by Valparaiso in the fifth inning versus Chicago State on April 2, 2010.

GOLD GLOVE AWARDS

2007: Jonathan Wyatt, OF
2008: Rich Poythress, 1B
2019: Cam Shepherd, SS

Beginning in 2007, the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) along with Rawlings Sporting Goods began a program where Rawlings Gold Glove Awards were presented to NCAA Division I players. Nomination and voting criteria are the same as the ABCA Rawlings All-Region and All-American Awards, which are collegiate baseball's oldest selections, dating back to 1949. The players and their schools each receive a Rawlings Gold Glove Award.

Georgia outfielder Jonathan Wyatt was one of the nine inaugural recipients in 2007. He led all SEC outfielders with a perfect 1.000 Fielding Percentage in 164 total chances in his final season with the Bulldogs. He was a 13th-round pick of the Chicago Cubs.

Rich Poythress received national recognition for his stellar play at first base for the SEC champion Bulldogs in 2008, earning a Gold Glove Award. He recorded a .995 fielding percentage in 69 starts with a school record 55 assists to go with 535 putouts in helping the team reach the College World Series Finals. Poythress finished his career with a .993 Fielding Percentage (1323 PO, 127 A, 10 E). He was a second round pick of the Seattle Mariners in 2009.

Cam Shepherd earned a Gold Glove in 2019 after setting a school record with a .987 fielding percentage at shortstop. Shepherd became the first shortstop on the All-SEC Defensive Team to go the entire league schedule without an error. He has started every game at shortstop the past three seasons (2017-19), a span of 180 games. A 20th round pick of the Tampa Bay Rays in 2019, he opted to return for his senior year and then signed as a free agent with Atlanta in 2020.

THE BERT KIZER AWARD

The Bert Kizer Award is named annually to the Georgia baseball letterman, who in his first year, displayed exemplory achievement in the combined areas of academics, athletics and citizenship.

The award was established during the 1991 season. Bert Kizer was a loyal Georgia Baseball supporter for a number of years. In fact, his two sons, Bubba and Craig, both lettered for the Bulldogs. Bubba was an All-America infielder who recorded a career .346 batting average from 1976-78. Craig lettered in 1981-82 and posted a career pitching record of 6-2.

JIM UMBRICHT AWARD

The Jim Umbricht Award is given annually to the Georgia player considered the "most competitive" by the Bulldog coaching staff. The award is sponsored by former Georgia player Johnny Clifton (1951-53) of Atlanta.

Jim Umbricht was a two-sport great at the University of Georgia in the early 1950s. In 1952, he was named captain of both the Bulldog baseball and basketball teams, playing shortstop and guard, respectively. From Georgia, he went on to a successful professional baseball career. He spent time with the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Houston Colt .45s. He was part of the Pirates World Series Championship team in 1960. In 1963, he was named Major League Baseball's Comeback Player-of-the-Year. He died in 1964 at the age of 33 after a bout with cancer.

MORTON HODGSON: One of the Best Ever

Morton Hodgson (1906-09) not only was a starter for four years in baseball, he lettered in football, basketball and track. He was Georgia's first four-letter athlete. A hometown hero, he hit .333 on the 1908 championship squad that was considered one of the greatest teams ever fielded by the University. The pitching staff was so strong it shut out 12 opponents, six in succession. He was named to Grantland Rice's All-Southern team.

His sons were stellar athletes for the Bulldogs and two of his grandsons lettered in football under Coach Vince Dooley. He is the only Georgia player to have a son and two grandsons letter in football at Georgia.

The 1975 Team: In Big Jim Whatley's "swan song" as the Bulldog baseball coach, Georgia captured the SEC Eastern Division title. The players included senior captain Phil Baker, All SEC outfielders Larry Littleton and Bubba Wilson and one of the top hitters in the SEC in Ted Dieter. On the mound, these Bulldogs were led by All-SEC hurlers Bill Ivie and Mickey Register along with Mike Keepers and Wayne LaHullier.

Chris Singleton Returns To UGA In 2022

Chris Singleton, who lost his mother in the 2015 mass shooting at a church in Charleston, S.C., returned to UGA and visited with the Bulldogs in 2022. It was a part of his “Love is Stronger than Hate” lecture. He has become an inspirational speaker, sharing his message with collegiate and professional teams. An outfielder for Charleston Southern in college, he faced the Bulldogs at Foley Field in 2016. Singleton later played professionally in the Chicago Cubs organization.

A Legacy Of Strength

Bulldog standouts Chance Veazey and Johnathan Taylor were honored before the win over South Carolina on March 24, 2018, and a unique permanent display on the Foley Field concourse was unveiled celebrating "A Legacy of Strength."

Both of their baseball careers were cut short by life-altering accidents at UGA. Their ability to persevere serves an inspiration to all those who know them and their stories. Both graduated in 2013 and live and work in their Georgia hometowns: Veazey in Tifton and Taylor in Acworth. The display features augmented reality and its own app that fans can download on their mobile device titled "A Legacy of Strength."

Once you download the app, open it and point your camera at the display, then watch at both the story being told and the technology that makes what you're seeing possible.

In December of 2013, Bulldogs Johnathan Taylor, Brett DeLoach and Chance Veazey earned their degrees from UGA.

The Taylor and Veazey families along with several of their teammates, athletic trainer Mike Dillon and their head coach David Perno returned to UGA and Foley Field to honor Chance and JT in 2018.

Every Bulldog Baseball Home Game Features The Mascot Race, And Sometimes Special Guests Too

BULLDOG LORE

While C.E. Morris served as the coach for Georgia's first team in 1886, Hughie Jennings is credited with being the Bulldogs' first official coach. He played for 17 years in the Major Leagues while also managing the Detroit Tigers from 1907-20. He was the second shortstop and among the first 35 men elected to the Hall of Fame. Former Bulldog Claude Derrick began his career with the Philadelphia Athletics in 1909 and played on two World Championship teams in 1910 and 1911. In 1912 with Baltimore, Derrick was the first roommate of rookie George Herman Ruth, better known as "The Babe."

WEBBER JOINS CIRCLE OF HONOR IN 2018

The Circle of Honor is the UGA Athletic Association's all sports recognition program which is designed to pay tribute to extraordinary University of Georgia student-athletes and coaches who by their performance and conduct have brought honor to the university and themselves, and who by their actions have contributed to the tradition of the Georgia Bulldogs. The criteria for selection also stipulate that each recipient has earned his or her academic degree.

Steve Webber, who is the winningest baseball coach in Georgia history with 500 victories between 1981 and 1996, was part of the Circle of Honor Class of 2018. He led Georgia to its first two College World Series appearances including winning the 1990 national championship, the first for the Southeastern Conference in the sport.

At the time of his induction, the native Iowan and graduate of Southern Illinois University, was just the fifth among all 79 inductees that are not UGA alumni. Webber passed away in 2022.

ENDOWMENT PROGRAM

University of Georgia student-athletes have a tremendous championship tradition to uphold. They carry the spirit and the pride for all students, alumni and supporters of UGA. The tradition of athletic and academic excellence at UGA is made possible by scholarships that provide these young people the opportunity to become successful, well-educated citizens, distinguished alumni and supporters of UGA.

A donor may endow a named scholarship for a UGA student-athlete with a gift of $250,000. Although the donor cannot select specific scholarship recepients, he or she can designate his/her support to a specific sport.There are seven baseball specific scholarship endowments.

For more information about the Athletic Scholarship Endowment Program, the Coaching Endowment program or other giving opportunities, please contact The Georgia Bulldog Club at (877) 423-2947.
